Travel Professionals Recommend These 40 Top-Rated Products To Pack In Your Suitcase

As airlines impose more and more baggage restrictions on travelers, our suitcase real estate becomes pretty valuable. To earn a spot in your carry on or inside your luggage, travel gear, clothes and beauty products need to be more than just useful or pretty. They have to really enhance your travel experience.

Travel professionals including airline staff, travel writers, bloggers, influencers and travel agents log a lot of miles traveling all around the world. They know which travel products live up to the hype and which you can pass on.

Separated into different categories including the best clothes and shoes to wear to the airport, the self care products that you can squeeze in your bag and the best case to choose to put it all inside.

These are the 40 top-rated products for your next trip as recommended by travel professionals.

Traveling Products to Make You Smile

Forget the free cheap plastic toothbrush offered at some hotels, your teeth deserve the best. Try the seriously chic Burst Sonic toothbrush, as favored by Chrissy Tiegen, which features a four week battery life to keep your teeth looking great even on long trips.

It also comes with a handy travel case, a USB charging dock and charcoal infused bristles on the replacement heads.
